location

Grand Valley State University is located among the valleys and ravines that separate Grand Rapids from Lake Michigan. Rolling hills and scenic trails make it a great place for any track athlete to train.

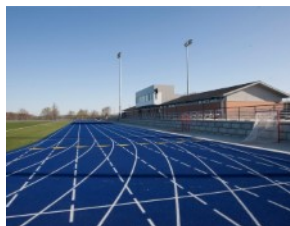

Camp Features

The purpose of the camp is to provide quality individual instruction in the technique and training that is necessary for young athletes to reach their potential. Everything is designed to instruct, entertain, and motivate the athletes through training sessions and lectures. Each day brings about a new opportunity for each athlete to explore the possibilities of their potential, all while enjoying the beautiful campus and meeting new friends. Several Grand Valley Track and Field student-athletes will be on hand serving as counselors, in addition to the successful coaches brought in from across the nation. A video analysis of your event as well as those of championship caliber athletes will be viewed. Most importantly we will have FUN!

Campers will be supervised at all times to ensure a safe and secure environment for the athletes to learn and have fun. Any misconduct could result in dismissal without a refund.

Directors & Coaches

Keith Roberts – Camp Director

Keith Roberts Jr. enters his fifth year as associate head track and field coach at Grand Valley State with his duties focusing on sprints, hurdles and relays. Roberts has coached at every level and has guided multiple All-Americans and National Champions. At GVSU, Roberts has coached student-athletes to 30 All-American honors, 19 school records, 43 GLIAC Championship titles and 31 All-Academic honors.

Jerry Baltes – Head Coach

In his 15th season, Jerry Baltes has accumulated an insurmountable number of accolades. During his tenure, Baltes has guided GV track and field teams to 55 Top-20 finishes at the NCAA championships and coached 147 All-American athletes. In the 2011-12 season his women's team became the first in the history of the NCAA to win National titles in cross country, indoor track and outdoor track in the same season.

Tessa Roberts – Sprints

Roberts is in her fifth season as assistant coach and has coached All-Americans in the sprints, hurdles and relays. On the national level, she has helped coach an 800 runner to a 2nd-place finish, a 100 runner to a fourth-place finish, and a 4x4 relay to a third-place finish.

Steve Jones – Jumps

Jones has coached student-athletes to more than 18 All-American awards and 4 National Titles, including the 2007 USA Outdoor National High Jump Champion.

Sean Denard – Throws

Denard has coached 5 All-Americans, 9 Conference Champions, 9 School Records and 3 Conference Championship Records. In college, Denard was an All-American and school record holder in the discus.
